

Air Transportation

Getting to Aspen/Snowmass is easy, especially when you fly. Take your pick from dozens of nonstop and connecting flights weekly into Aspen, as well as hundreds of options into Eagle and Denver airports.

Aspen/Pitkin County Airport

Approximately 150 nonstop and connecting flights fly weekly into Aspen/Pitkin County Airport. From the airport, it's only 6 miles to Snowmass Village.

Domestic flights & connections to Aspen/Pitkin County Airport.

International connections to Aspen/Pitkin County Airport. Click on the map below for a high-res version.

Three airlines offer direct service to Aspen/Pitkin County Airport (ASE):

- United Express: CRJ-700 regional jet service (66 seats including First Class and Economy Plus). Frequent connecting service from Denver (9-11 flights daily), nonstop jet service from Los Angeles (4 flights daily), San Francisco (2 flights daily), Chicago/O'Hare (4-5 flights daily) and Houston (1-2 flights daily).

CONNECTING SERVICE: Perfectly timed connections to Aspen will be available throughout the day from nearly 200 cities throughout the U.S., Canada, Australia, New Zealand & the Pacific Rim.

- American Airlines: CRJ-700 aircraft operated by American Eagle (63 seats including first class). Nonstop service to Aspen from Dallas/Ft. Worth (1 flight daily) and Los Angeles (1 flight daily).

CONNECTING SERVICE: New one-stop international connection from Australia and New Zealand into Los Angeles on Quantas and connections from Brazil, Argentina and the United Kingdom into Dallas on American Airlines.

Delta Airlines: CRJ-700 aircraft operated by Skywest (65 seats including first class). Nonstop service to Aspen from Atlanta (1 flight daily) and Minneapolis/St. Paul (Saturday Only).

*IMPORTANT NOTE: Airline information is kept current to available information, but we cannot guarantee the airlines listed above. For up-to-the-minute flight information and to confirm availability, please contact the airlines directly or contact your preferred travel provider.